

Nonprofit Funding in Response to COVID-19

1. CDP COVID-19 Response Fund: The CDP COVID-19 Response Fund will focus on supporting nonprofit organizations working directly to respond to the pandemic among the most vulnerable populations in order to help build their capacity for response. These will include social service organizations focused on supporting hourly wage earners, workers in the gig economy, immigrant/New American populations, older adults, people with disabilities and other communities vulnerable to the physical health, mental health and economic impacts of the pandemic. Some donors include The Coca-Cola Foundation, Google Play, The Hershey Company, New York Life, T. Rowe Price Foundation, UPS Foundation and Verizon.

2. America's Charities Coronavirus Response Fund: With a single donation to this fund, you can simultaneously help meet immediate needs of individuals affected by the coronavirus, along with long-term measures designed to combat COVID-19 and prevent and prepare for similar outbreaks in the future. All donations to the America's Charities Coronavirus Response Fund will be allocated evenly between the following two America's Charities' vetted nonprofits: Feeding America and PATH.

3. Feeding America launched the COVID-19 Response Fund: The fund supports a national food- and fund-raising effort to support people facing hunger and the food banks who help them.

4. COVID-19 Relief Fund Application by the Foundation of Contemporary Arts: In light of the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the artist community, the Foundation for Contemporary Arts is creating a temporary fund to meet the needs of experimental artists who have been impacted by the economic fallout from postponed or canceled performances and exhibitions.

5. First Coast Relief Fund Reactivates for COVID-19 Response: To help the residents most affected by COVID-19 disruption, The Community Foundation for Northeast Florida, Jessie Ball duPont Fund, Jewish Federation and Foundation of Northeast Florida, United Way of Northeast Florida and United Way of St. Johns County reactivated Florida's First Coast Relief Fund. The fund will assist local organizations helping those in Northeast Florida affected by this public health crisis.

6. Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, Wellcome and Mastercard launched an initiative to speed development and access to therapies for COVID-19. The COVID-19 Therapeutics Accelerator will coordinate research and development efforts and remove barriers to drug development and scale-up to address the epidemic. These companies have committed a combined $125 million in funding to go toward treatment funding.

7. Northeast Florida COVID-19 Relief Fund: Jaguars owner Shad Khan announced a donation of $1 million to Northeast Florida COVID-19 Relief Fund: According to the Jacksonville Daily Record, “Jacksonville Jaguars owner Shad Khan said March 24 he will personally commit $1 million to Northeast Florida nonprofits responding to the impact of COVID-19.” The $1 million is divided among five organizations:

- $400,000 to Florida’s First Coast Relief Fund that provides immediate support for children, families, seniors and veterans.
- $75,000 to Feeding Northeast Florida for meals to food-insecure residents.
- $75,000 to the Clara White Mission to support Downtown Jacksonville’s homeless population.
- $50,000 to the Jacksonville Public Education Fund for student and teacher supplies and technology to transition to digital home learning.
- $50,000 to the American Red Cross North Florida Region to support Anheuser-Busch’s initiative for blood drives. Read the full article here.